An Introduction to ETFs and Funds

Course No 101

Open-ended funds and Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) have become a very popular, cost effective and efficient way for investors to build diversified portfolios. Funds are widely used by investors and include a wide variety of assets such as bonds, equities, real-estate and commodities. This course will focus primarily on the different types of funds available to investors ranging from Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), to open-ended and closed-ended funds. The course will contrast ETFs versus traditional funds, differentiate between active and passive management, explain the prospectus, expense ratios and other key points.
